SUBSCRIPTIONS TO AUDI- TORIUM PILE UP

Committees are Doing Good Work and Report Everybody Enthusiastic Over Project.

The committee of the Commercial club appointed to secure subscriptions for stock in Monett's community auditorium report good progress so far. Everyone is enthusiastic over the project and are anxious to help see the enterprise through.

On sales day, a meeting of the farmers will be held and the proposition will be presented to them. Most of them are anxious for a chance to get in on the project for they know that it will be of benefit to the farmer as well as to the citizens of Monett.

LOOKING FOR FARMS

Parties have been in Cassville, Exeter, Butterfield, Purdy and other towns and communities of Barry county every week lately looking for homes.

News has reached lots of people in Kansas, Arkansas and Oklahoma, especially of the future prospects and possibilities of this country as a fruit dairy and livestock country and many of them are interested in buying land to make this county their home.

Two weeks ago five Oklahoma men were here looking for land. Last week two more from Oklahoma were here, also to buy farms.

Southwest Missouri, and especially Barry county promises to soon be one of the most prosperous sections of the state on account of the production of small fruit and apples and for the increased interest in dairying and livestock. —Cassville Republican.

ATTEMPT TO BREAK TREATY DEADLOCK

Reservations to Article Ten and for Preservation of Monroe Cause of Differences.

Washington, Jan. 28.—Preponderance of senate opinion on the eve of another and, perhaps final, bi-partisan conference of Republican and Democratic leaders was that a deadlock had been reached, making an agreement very unlikely on compromise peace treaty reservations.

Reservations to article 10 and for preservation of the Monroe doctrine promised to be the center of variance between the leaders of the two factions at tomorrow's meeting, and it appeared that should a break come it would result from inability to agree on these two points. Should the bi-partisan conferences, which have been in progress for more than weeks, be abandoned, influences at work in both political parties, it was asserted today in some quarters, undoubtedly would have a strong effect ultimately in the direction of a compromise which would keep the treaty out of the political campaign.

Article 10 and the Monroe doctrine it became known today, were the only subjects on which tentative agreement has not been reached by the bi-partisan committee. Much of the language of the Republican reservations adopted last session has been agreed to by the Democrats, it was revealed, while many changes had been rewritten entirely.
